

THE REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS EDITORIAL POLICY

The Review of International Affairs is scientific journal dedicated to international legal, economic, political and security relations. Established in 1950 as the first Yugoslav scholarly journal in its field, The Review of International Affairs is one of the oldest and best-known periodicals in the Balkans that cover research in International Relations.

The journal The Review of International Affairs publishes original papers and review articles. The journal also publishes lectures given by foreign ambassadors at the IIPe's Ambassadorial Forum, as well as a substantial book review section that identifies the most salient work of both emerging and enduring scholars of International Studies.

We strongly encourage papers on politics, economics, security and international law issues in the Balkan regional context. Aside from the Balkan-related issues, we are welcoming papers on other regional studies as well. However, this focus thus not presuppose limitation for articles, studies and comments on other relevant international topics.

The journal is published three times a year in English with abstracts, both in English and Serbian. Authors that speak the BHS language should submit their abstracts in the Serbian language, and for the authors from other countries, Editorial Team will provide translation in the Serbian language. In Serbia, readers are the diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, foreign news agencies, universities, research institutions, and prominent political, academic, economic and cultural figures. Abroad, readers are the diplomatic representatives of Serbia, policy-makers at the national and international levels, chambers of commerce, companies, universities, research institutes etc. The journal is distributed in more than 150 countries.
